THIS MORNING AT LAGRANGE

We are learning about:

Luke 19:1-5

"He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today.'"

We are worshiping God through:

"For thus says the Lord God: 'Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out.' " (Ezekiel 34:11)

 Welcome And Call To Worship: Travis Palmer
 Seniors' Graduation Recognition
In Tenderness
Grace Alone

“As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country.”
(Ezekiel 34:12-13)

✝ Confession, Assurance & Pastoral Prayer: Kenny Madden

Prayer of Belief: "Heavenly Father, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through your Son Jesus, I can be more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank You that He lived the life I should have lived and paid the debt and punishment I owed. I turn from my sins and receive Him as my King and my Savior. Amen."
